An armed bandit, foiled in a robbery attempt early Sunday morning, was tracked down and arrested in Wolverine later in the day after a speedy investigation by Crawford County Sheriff's deputies.

The suspect in the incident, Kevin A. Marculewicz, 21, Grayling was arraigned in 83rd District Court Tuesday morning and charged with two counts of attempt to rob while armed.

According to Sheriff Joe White and Sgt. Charles Haas, the suspect was brandishing a gun when he accosted a couple in the Red Barn parking lot about 1:30 a.m. Sunday morning, demanding money. When the suspect was momentarily distracted, he was kicked in the chest by the male victim, dropped the gun and fled the scene.

Marculewicz was later identified and arrested in Wolverine with the aid of police from Tuscarora Township.

Music in the Making at Grayling High School

Robert Sienkiewicz, vocal music director at Grayling High School and Grayling Middle School, is pleased to announce an expanding music curriculum in the Grayling Public Schools. "Our aim is to offer a variety of musical experiences to students whether it be a performing group or a survey type class."

With this goal in mind, Mr. Sienkiewicz is offering for the 1981-82 school year three new classes along with the already established choir groups.

The first new class, Guitar Class, has been implemented this year and is very successful. Along with Guitar Class, Music Appreciation will be added to the course offerings. This class is designed for students who like music but don't wish to perform. Also, a Music Theory class will be offered on an every other year basis alternating with Music Appreciation for those students with serious intentions about a music career.

Mr. Sienkiewicz urges students to register for any class that they may be interested in. "We would like to see 50% of our student body involved in some way or another with music. I am confident that with parental and community support along with the growing student interest in music, we will achieve our goal."

Travelogue Series to End April 30

The Grayling Community School Office will end its current Travel and Adventure series on Thursday evening, April 23 with a fascinating full color adventure of the countries of Guatemala and Yucatan. Appearing alive and in person to narrate this exciting true-life documentary will be nationally recognized photographer, lecturer and explorer Romain Wilhelmsen.

The film will be shown in the Grayling High School Auditorium with doors opening at 6:45 p.m. and the travelogue scheduled to begin at 7:30. Tickets will be available at the door.

Guatemala and Yucatan were focal points of the great Mayan civilization. They are also two beautiful and intriguing places. Primitive villages contrast with modern cities like Merida, Guatemala City and the deluxe resorts of Lake Atitlan.

A high altitude lake, Atitlan is considered the "Riviera" of Yucatan and a scenic gem. Sidestep the beaten path with Romain Wilhelmsen and explore the remains of Mayan Culture in archaeological marvels like Tikal, Uxmal, Tulum and Chichen Itza. Find more than a lost civilization in "Mysterious Mayalands."

By Joe Schrader

Official groundbreaking ceremonies were held last Friday morning, heralding the start of construction of Camp Grayling's new, $1.5 million dollar armory building.

The groundbreaking was attended by local officials and military personnel, along with high-ranking army officers who traveled in from Lansing to participate in the ceremony.

"Our 300 men will put it to good use as a home station," remarked Camp Commander, Colonel JR Lippert, who welcomed Major General John Johnston, Adjutant General of Michigan, Brig.-General Arthur Phillips, Asst. Adjutant General, and Gen. Vern Andrews, Asst. Division Commander, 38th Infantry Division, to the construction site. The armory, scheduled for completion next spring, will serve as home base for the 1071st Maintenance Company, 1438th Engineer Detachment, and Camp Grayling Garrison units, who have members from all across lower Michigan.

The project will be co-funded with the State of Michigan paying 25% of its cost and the balance coming from federal funds.

Also participating in the ceremonies were former Camp Commander, Col. Ed Rutkowski, Mary Harland of the Board of Commissioners, Charles Goddeyne, Aide to Congressman Bob Davis, and Gordon Larson of Gust Construction Company, General Contractor. Colonel Lippert acknowledged that Congressman Davis, and State Representatives Ralph Ostling and Steve Andrews were instrumental in obtaining the armory project for Camp Grayling.

The building will be of concrete block construction with a brick facade and will contain 25,403 square feet. The building will measure 150 by 142 feet. Two unheated motor vehicle storage buildings will also be added to house the units' vehicles.

Other features include a 70' x 90' assembly hall; large, 41' x 24' classroom; food preparation and cafeteria areas. Numerous offices, a military library, learning center and ample parking will also be provided.

The armory will be two-story in the front, one level in the back and will be located just inside the camp's main gates.

General Johnston said Camp Grayling would continue to be targeted for future growth and said $30 million in programs are being considered, including a $2.7 million ammunition and logistics facility. When completed, the armory will be available for community use, Col. Lippert said, with rental arrangements anticipated for various public activities.

"It will be truly a community armory," he stressed.

40 Years At Mercy Hospital

Mary Noa Honored For Long Nursing Career

by Joe Schrader

Her eyes sparkle when she talks about her 44 years of work as a professional nurse, a career that has touched parts of five decades here in Grayling alone, and dates back to 1937 when she graduated from St. Mary's School of Nursing in Grand Rapids.

"We functioned very well at the old hospital," recalls Mary Noa, who is celebrating her 40th year of caring for patients at Mercy Hospital, "we gave good, quality care but with many, many inconveniences." She was referring to her work at the old hospital located on a site now occupied by AuSable-Manistee Motel on old-27 north, and where she began her nursing career in Grayling.

In the years that have passed since then, Mary has cared for literally thousands of patients, serving as Head Nurse at Mercy's new addition, on the 2-south surgical floor, where she is being honored for her many years of dedicated service to the profession. The tribute is appropriate-coming on the eve of the celebration of Nurse's Week, starting May 3rd, followed by National Hospital Week May 10-16.

A Gaylord resident who has commuted to work all those years, Mary says, "I am grateful to the Lord for allowing me to serve all these patients over the years. He saw me through a serious illness in 1948 and permitted me to continue with my work."

Mary graduated from St. Mary's School of Nursing in Grand Rapids in 1937. Her sciences were learned at Aquinas College, formerly known as Catholic Junior College. After graduation she worked as a private duty nurse for two years, then served as a staff nurse at Tolfree Hospital in West Branch. From there she went to Little Traverse Hospital in Petoskey before joining the Mercy Hospital staff in Grayling in 1941.

Mary credits the Sisters of Mercy Order and the hospital staff for inspiring her through the years. "I have a great respect for all the sisters and their philosophy and commitment to people. And all the doctors, I have the highest regard for them all."

She recalls the days of Doctors Clippert and Keyport. "They stand out in my memory, also Doctors Blaha, Henig and Dosch, they have all served the community the longest," said Mary, who hastens to add that all the younger doctors are "just great" too. "And Sister Mary Hilda is one of the finest administrators I have ever seen."

Viking 'Nine' Hosts Gaylord Thursday

by Joe Schrader

The Grayling Viking baseball team opens up season play this Thursday at home against the Gaylord Blue Devils, kicking off a 20-game slate against four conference schools.

Head Coach Fred Wolcott will guide his squad through two doubleheaders a week until the District Tournament which the Vikes will host on May 30.

The team of 18 players, including eight returning varsity lettermen, had a non-conference game against Gladwin postponed April 14 because of bad weather.

Wolcott said the team "was ready to play" after 28 practice sessions dating back to mid-March. "We're a young team, class-wise," said Wolcott, "but experienced in competition. We have eight players back who saw a lot of action last year."

Returning senior lettermen include John Junttila (1b), Scott Hale (of), Bill Roach (ss) and catcher Kevin LaMotte. Juniors returning are Ted Methner (of), Joel Money (1b-of) and Brad Trenary (p-of). Also back is sophomore Monty D'Amour (p-3b), who earned a letter last year as a freshman.

Wolcott said the team was not a powerhouse club, but had good, all-around hitting potential, lots of speed and aggressiveness. "You'll see a lot of baserunning this year," the coach promised.

"The key to our success will be how strong we are defensively up the middle," Wolcott continued, "and whether we can get consistent pitching efforts."

The coach looks to Roach, D'Amour, Trenary, Junttila, Methner, Hale and Joel Money to provide the offensive firepower—"we have a good nucleus," the coach added, "and we look for some others to help out."

Charlevoix, Petoskey, Rogers City and Gaylord are the only other conference schools fielding teams this year.

Probable starter Thursday is righthander Brad Trenary, who worked on the mound for the Vikes last year as a sophomore. The junior was also one of the top hitters on last year's club, hitting over .300 for the year.

From Our Corner ...

Too many activities over the weekend kept the ol' fella from cheating on this column and now we are faced with our normal Monday deadline...and with out any thing of important to convey onto our readers...so I guess we will have to come up with hit and misses that happened during last week that had little consequences...

First off...we will have to bring up our meeting with Irv McIsaac, retired railroad man, last Wednesday and he had a paper that the ink hadn't dried on it...so knowing Irv we carried on a nonsense conversation, until he came up with the remark, people are getting a little tired of you calling your work of art a turkey, and at the same time he said why don't you call it the Gobbler, all you do is gobble in your corner...

If that wasn't enough, Jack Mason cornered me on a headline that we had put on a story about Dial-A-Ride that misrepresented the text of the article, so I told him to write a Letter to the Editor and we would put it in this week's issue...the letter appears elsewhere...the problem is he had to get nasty and write me another one, we're beginning to think all he is doing is trying to get his name in the paper...following is his second letter to me personally...

April 23, 1981

Whitey-

Now that I have labored hard to produce a strong, but polite, letter which hopefully will serve the dual purpose of correcting a legitimate misunderstanding and save my butt from unemployment, allow me a moment to say what the uninhibited Jack Pine personality might have written:

"Listen here, you aging, overweight refugee from Otsego County, if you ever again screw up a story of mine like that, I'll cast a Spell over you so that all that'll come out of your typewriter in the future will be a gooey mess of Turkey Feathers and Orange Pop. Come to think of it, though, somebody beat me to it!"

Have a Happy Day!
Jack Pine

We never print Letters to the Editor that are signed with anonymous, but, this one is an exception, we thought it a little amusing, it was stuffed in our door when we arrived home Saturday night...here with is the note...

Dear Whitey,
Why are "roosters" needed at women's softball games?

Anonymous
P.S. Do you think it will give those hens something to cackle about?

Printing this little tid-bit we hope we haven't offended any of our women softball players, which is gaining in popularity every year...

On Sunday the bride and I joined some 10 other couples in a surprise 40th wedding anniversary party for Arnie and Bernie Mauren at their home on the AuSable River...was a nice afternoon on the river, and as we were sitting there it came to mind that we're not that far removed for our 40th, but, than we always knew ol' Arn was much older than I...we've known them some 25 years when they came north from Wyandotte and ran the Big Wheel Station at the intersection of M-18 and U.S. 27...the day was a fun day...and congratulations to the Maurens in reaching this milestone...

A late thought...with the weather we have been experiencing lately we have to wonder how the trout fishermen survived the opening when we had snow flakes in the air and low temperatures in the high 20's and low 30's...there had to be ice on the lines as they cast their lure for the wily trout...but then lately it seems that is the kind of weather we have on the weekend of the opening of trout season...

We have been thinking about closing this turkey tonight with something smart and all we can think about is with friends like McIsaac and Mason no one needs enemies...with that we are heading for the shack...have a nice weekend...and to T.J., Stef, and Amber...goodnight...

It's your return
that counts!

The Bible Speaks

From Calvary Baptist Church

Terms You Should Know

We have already covered terms dealing with Bible Christianity and the steps leading away to Modernism, which rejects Bible Christianity. Modernism is also called Liberalism and both of these terms identify those religious leaders who would be proud to be called "Humanists."

1. NEO-ORTHODOXY is that movement which attempts to bring together Modernism and Fundamentalism. It compromises the reason of the Modernist and the Bible of the Fundamentalist for religious experience as final authority. It is that inconsistent and illogical contemporary movement of theological deception, also called "Crisis Theology" or "Barthianism," which is a reaction away from liberalism but which constitutes a failure to return to the historic Christian faith, emphasizing a subjective authority of the Bible, using an evangelical terminology while embracing the destructively critical conclusions of modernism with respect to the Bible.

2. EXISTENTIALISM is a secular philosophical method used by neo-orthodox theology which determines the value of truth as it relates one to the ultimate issues of life and death, through a mood of thinking, bringing one to an inward concern and commitment.

3. RELIGIOUS APOSTASY is any denial of the person, work or Word of God. It is that gradual or abrupt theological departure from a biblically orthodox profession to the espousal of an antagonistic position involving the abandonment of the historic Christian Faith.

4. NEW EVANGELICALISM is sometimes called the New Neutralism. It is that relatively recent theological movement of neutralism affecting orthodoxy Christianity, designed to close the gap between Fundamentalism and Neo-Orthodoxy; which is weak on verbal inspiration of the Bible, enamored of unbelieving scientific scholarship, benevolent towards social action projects, committed to the ecumenical movement, noted for a sympathy toward Neo-Orthodoxy, characterized by an antagonism toward Fundamentalism, pre-tribulation dispensationalism; and given to the "dialogue," which means conference with the liberals to learn more of doctrine, with the Pentecostals to learn more about the Holy Spirit, with the cults to broaden their fellowship, and with a corresponding willingness to confer with Jews and other religious beliefs for religious benefits. More terms next week. (adv.)

A Ski & Shore Properties, Inc. spokesman announced that Robert Prause of Grayling will again represent Ski & Shore Real Estate in Grayling, Michigan beginning April 22, 1981.

The Grayling operation will be named Ski & Shore Professional Realty-Grayling. The spokesman also stated, "The Grayling area of Crawford County has much appeal for recreational real estate buyers."

Grayling is no more than three hours from the populations of Detroit, Lansing and Flint, and for the most part, not quite one tank of gas away."

Ski & Shore is one of 24 offices located in Northern Michigan dedicated to giving professional service to the buyer and seller of resort real estate, vacation homes, land development and investments.

MSU Bulletin Has Guidelines
For Oil and Gas Leasing

EAST LANSING—The interest in leasing private property for oil and gas exploration may be on the upswing throughout most of the state.

"This is a development opportunity for Michigan, but it does carry some potential problems, especially if property owners don't understand the provisions of the leases they sign. Any lease offered at any time warrants scrutinizing," says Adger B. Carroll, Carroll coordinates the Michigan State University Cooperative Extension Service Natural Resources and Public Policy programs.

In response to public inquiry, Carroll and County Extension Directors, Lynn Gould, Roy Spangler and Vernon VandePol compiled a booklet on leasing. It's called "Oil and Gas Leasing: Some Basic Considerations for Landowners." It will be available at all MSU county Extension offices after May 15. It may also be ordered by writing to: MSU Bulletin Office, Box 231, Michigan State University, East Lansing, MI 48824.

Distribution of the booklet is not intended as a reflection upon any oil or gas leasing company. But it is an acknowledgment that leasing organizations are apt to have more information than private landowners.

"By far, most oil and gas companies are legitimate operations," Carroll says. "But property owners must realize that a lease is a negotiable private contract and that anyone seeking a lease is after the best deal they can get. Property owners should also approach a lease from that perspective."

The MSU document contains considerations property owners should think about when examining a lease. Primary, says Carroll, is determining how promising their locale is for oil or gas. To find out, he advises talking with neighbors about offers made to them and checking with the Michigan DNR regional office, the county register of deeds and the county Extension office.

It is also important to determine who is offering the lease: a leasing company, a speculator or a representative of the oil or gas company which will actually do the exploration. "Beyond these, the landowner should determine exactly what will be done with the land and any material discovered beneath it," Carroll says. "In short, go into a lease with full knowledge of what is to be done and when, and bargain for the highest payments possible for the shortest period of time."

Landowners should also remember that there is no such thing as a standard lease—all are open to negotiation.

"I wouldn't be stampeded into anything. If there is something worth going after beneath the land, it's worth bargaining over," Carroll says.

Keep in mind that leases are binding.

"Once the lease is signed, the property owner is obligated by law to meet the specifications," he warns. All the more reason, Carroll says, to take the time to fully understand what you are agreeing to.

ABWA BOSS Night May 1

On May 1, Grayling Charter Chapter of the American Business Womens Association (ABWA) will highlight its Boss Night festivities with the presentation of the 8th annual Boss of the Year award. Mayor Sandy Thompson has declared Friday "Boss Day" and encouraged the people of Grayling to take part in the event.

The annual Boss Night event is designed to honor the employers of ABWA members. Gene Petrosky, an advertising specialist, will be guest speaker at the meeting at the Red Barn Lounge. The evening will begin with cocktails at 6:30 p.m. and proceed with a complete steak dinner at 7:30 p.m.

Outstanding community service, business success, and consideration for employees are factors weighed in the selection of the Boss of the Year. Serving on the panel of judges for the 8th Boss of the Year recipient are business and professional people from outside our area.

One goal of ABWA is to encourage better employer-employee relations by helping business women to increase their efficiency and business skills. ABWA promotes the professional, educational, cultural and social advancement of business women.

The association currently has over 100,000 members nationally. As an educational association, the awarding of scholarships is one of ABWA's key programs. ABWA's 1600 chapters awarded over $1,400,000 in scholarships this past year.

Amendment Proposed To Reduce Legislative Sessions

Warren M. Hoyt, Executive Director, MPA

The saying that less government is the best government may find a home in Michigan under a proposed constitutional amendment which would reduce the length of the annual legislative sessions to five months.

Currently, Michigan has year-round legislative sessions. Only Ohio, Pennsylvania and New York also have full time legislatures.

Generally, the Michigan Legislature takes as long as nine months to complete its annual budget work considering the basic budget supplementals and transfers.

During the budget process and for the remainder of the year, the membership is working on a myriad of other problems facing the industrialized state.

However, this year the Legislature put the finishing touches on the $9.81 billion budget in mid-April just four months after the opening of the new session.

Besides other pieces of legislation, the Legislature completed action on a controversial property tax cut ballot proposal along with all the implementing statutes should the proposal be adopted by the voters on May 19.

Senator Donald Bishop (R-Rochester), following the lead of Governor William G. Milliken in calling for shorter legislative sessions has proposed a constitutional amendment which would limit the lengths of sessions to five months.

"I think it would be a better planning product with the session beginning in January," he said.

With the time constraints, he predicted, lawmakers would no longer dawdle, the number of frivolous bills introduced would be sharply reduced and the taxpayers would save money.

He said that during a five-month legislative session, lawmakers could still meet about 105 working days, compared to about 130 currently worked now under the full year session approach.

During a typical week, the Legislature meets Monday nights and during the day on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

Lawmakers generally take a two week recess during the Easter/spring break, are off during the summer months and again are off for Thanksgiving and Christmas.

These breaks are normally lengthened prior to the August primary and November general elections when members are up for re-election.

During his State-of-the-State Message, Milliken called for six-month legislative sessions so lawmakers could use the remainder of the time dealing with constituent problems in their respective districts.

At that time, House Speaker Bobby Crim of Davison and Senate Majority Leader William Faust of Westland discounted that plan saying that since Michigan is a major industrial state, there is always some matter needing legislative attention.

Under Bishop's proposal, a special three-day session of the Legislature would be convened, probably in June, to consider overrides of any bill vetoed by the governor.

In addition the governor would be allowed to call special 20-day sessions with the concurrence of the speaker of the House and majority leader of the Senate.

Standing and special legislative committees, meanwhile, would be allowed to meet throughout the year to prepare legislation for immediate action upon the regularly scheduled legislative sessions.

Vikingland Happenings

By Jane Stamm

During December, all Juniors participated in a survey in accordance with the ACT (American College Testing Program) Career Planning Program. Bill Klinger, junior counselor, has been working with the students in small groups since the beginning of March. The program itself identifies and explores educational and vocational programs, and increases student awareness of career options. The program's goals are to identify career options, determine how to strengthen weaknesses, and formulate tentative career goals for each student. Bill Klinger feels that the program will assist students scheduling for their senior year and says, "My hope is that students have marketable skills by the time they graduate so they can meet their career options."

On April 15, Junior and Sophomore class meetings were held to make students aware that it will soon be time to schedule for next year. During the junior class meeting, Kent Reynolds, high school principal, spoke about graduation requirements and general matters. Bill Klinger, 11th grade counselor, told students which courses were required for seniors and distributed pre-registration sheets for the students to complete. Carol Wert also spoke about senior pictures, which will be taken sometime during the months of June and September. The sophomore class meeting was run primarily the same except these students did not hear Mr. Wert speak. There was a parent's meeting April 28 at 7:30 p.m. to familiarize parents with the scheduling process. Following Easter vacation, students will meet individually with their counselors to determine a final schedule. Seniors will schedule first and then juniors. Sophomores and freshmen will have meetings regarding scheduling in May, and then complete the scheduling process for next year.

Senior Citizen Month May, 1981

WHEREAS: Senior Citizens Month, May 1 to 31 provides us an appropriate opportunity to recognize the many contributions which older citizens have made to their City, State and Nation.

WHEREAS: The contributions of older citizens in the development of our society are all too often only passively acknowledged. More importantly, the continuing achievement of large numbers of older citizens through participation in volunteer programs, such as Foster Grandparents and the Retired Senior Volunteer Program, and in continuing professional and employment capacities, go largely unnoticed by vast segments of our society. However, through these contributions many older citizens significantly improve the life opportunities of many disadvantaged members of our society.

WHEREAS: This is a time to recognize the potential of the older citizen both in building our society and in maintaining it.

WHEREAS: It is time, too, for state and local government and private citizens to recognize the unique needs of many of our friends, neighbors and relatives, and develop services which are sensitized to those needs to better enhance the lives of the over 60 years of age members of our community.

Therefore, I, Gordon Thompson, Mayor of the City of Grayling, urge every citizen to join in the observance of Senior Citizens' Month through cooperative community action and to resolve to pay full recognition to our older citizens.

Gordon Thompson
Mayor of the City of Grayling

The plan is a culmination of planning and documentation efforts undertaken by the DNR and the fourteen regional planning agencies throughout the state including the Northeast Michigan Council of Governments (NEMCOG). The Clean Water Plan for Northeast Michigan completed in 1978 by NEMCOG will be incorporated into the State's plan which will outline the methods and strategies for controlling all types of water pollution in Michigan.

The draft document now available for review is Chapter III, titled Recommended Plan. Interested persons may review the document at county libraries in Alcona, Alpena, Cheboygan, Crawford, Montmorency, Oscoda, Otsego and Presque Isle counties. Comments may be sent in writing to NEMCOG, Box 457, Gaylord, Michigan 49735. For further information, contact Bob Wagner, NEMCOG Water Quality Planner at (517) 732-3551.

Nurse Week May 3-10

MICHIGAN NURSE WEEK will be held May 3 through 10. Gov. William Milliken has issued a formal proclamation setting aside this week to honor Michigan's nurses. Nurses throughout the state will be recognized for their vital contributions to the public and health field.

"Nurses: Qualified to Meet Special Needs" is the theme for 1981. The scope and depth of responsibilities assumed by nurses is expanding rapidly in today's complex health care system. One goal of Michigan Nurse Week is to raise the public's awareness of the diversity of today's nurse.

Local activities, which will give emphasis to the many specialty areas of nursing, are scheduled throughout the state. If you have not received information on events in your community, call the Michigan Nurses Association for the name of an area contact person, or check with the hospitals, health departments and other agencies in your area.

Michigan Nurse Week, sponsored by the Michigan Nurses Association, is an effort to gain recognition for all nurses among the public and other health professions.

Grayling Players to Present 1934 Cole Porter Musical

"Anything Goes," the first of the great Cole Porter stage musicals that later led him to such hits as "Kiss me, Kate", "Can Can", "Silk Stockings", "Panama Hattie" and "Let's Face It" will be presented at the Grayling High School Auditorium on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, May 7, 8 and 9 by the Grayling High School Players. Curtain time has been set for 8:15 and all seats are reserved. Reserved seat tickets are presently on sale and may be purchased at the Grayling Pharmacy in downtown Grayling or by mail from the Grayling Community School Office. Price of admission is $2.50 for all performances.

Even despite the depression against which it opened in New York in 1934, "Anything Goes" has the record of running up one of the greatest records of success on Broadway of any musical of that time. The story and the Cole Porter songs have been such continual favorites ever since that no less than two movies have been made of it the first in 1936 and the second in 1956.

In both films, Bing Crosby had the leading male role of a man who sails aboard a trans-Atlantic liner on a sudden impulse to keep the girl he loves from marrying a stuffy Englishman. Tim Taylor will portray that twice acted role of Crosby's in the Grayling High School production. His romantic impulse forces him to borrow a passport from another passenger who too suspiciously offers him one, and this document turns out to belong to a hunted Public Enemy. This runs him into one complication after another and many hilarious consequences—especially because the man who has offered him the document is not the clergyman he is dressed to represent, but is himself a Public Enemy but with an embarrassingly low rank—Public Enemy No. 13.

John Watkins will have this role of a false cleric carrying a sub-machine gun in a saxophone case. He calls this weapon "my little putt-puttputt," and he muses on the advisability of raising his rating by bumping off an irritating fellow passenger, as if he were composing a wistful sonnet. Appearing as the cleric's partner in crime will be Alicia Taylor.

Also in a leading role will be Sue Prause as a former lady evangelist who has been seen "the light" and turned brassy night club singer.

Ronda Morford will appear as the self-sacrificing girl ready to marry a dull Englishman played by Scott Duckley, to save her family's fortune, whom the knight-errant-without-a-passport is attempting to save from her rash decision! Others in the cast include Steve Allen, Mark Hamilton, George Morse, Todd Reeves and Linda Legg.

"Anything Goes" is famous for having in its song-chest some of Cole Porter's most famous ditties, the title song, "You're The Top", "I Get A Kick Out Of You", the camp meeting shout "Blow Gabriel, Blow", "All Through The Night" and "It's Delovely".

Editor's Mailbox

April 23, 1981

Dear Whitey:

The headline on the Dial-A-Ride article in this week's Avalanche could be interpreted to indicate a story far different to the one which followed.

The head stated that no County funds are used to operate Dial-A-Ride. The article, as stated in the lead sentence, says that no County funds are used to pay Green Thumb employees of the Service. These necessary employees are funded by the United States Department of Labor to provide employment for experienced Senior Citizens.

It would be ridiculous for Crawford County Public Transit to say it does not use County funds in the face of the outstanding support given by the Crawford County Board of Commissioners and County residents at the recent General Election.

I trust you will allow space for this clarification.

Sincerely,
Jack Mason

Volunteers Honored

April 26th through May 2 is National Volunteer Week. The volunteers of the Retired Senior Volunteer Program have contributed 18,978 volunteer hours in the past year. From May 1, 1980 to March 31, 1981 the 200 registered RSVP volunteers have served in the 32 RSVP stations throughout the county.

RSVP, a federal funded agency through ACTION, is sponsored by the Crawford County Commission on Aging.

Through the many volunteer hours RSVP volunteers, anyone 60 years of age or older, help the community in areas of education, health, recreation and service. The annual RSVP Recognition Dinner on May 8 will honor all active RSVP volunteers.

VOLUNTEERS ASSIST ON DINNER—Please allow me to take this opportunity not only to express very sincere thanks to the people of Grayling, but also comment on the very positive attitude which exists in our community. Saturday night, there was a spaghetti dinner at Auman's to assist the family of the late Donna Bielski.

The list of people who should be thanked for their cooperation in this endeavor would require more space than would be practical. Volunteer workers were fantastic, to say the least, and all twenty-six of them made this dinner a complete success. Moreover, many more people contributed food items which greatly reduced the cost and their number is forty-three individuals and eight businesses.

It is important that everyone should know that not only our friends were assisted, but we also, once again have proven that we are a community of people who care.

Sincerely,
John St. Clair
Bielski Benefit Committee

Students Visit Science Center

Fourteen advanced chemistry students of Grayling High School spent three days in Toronto recently. They went to visit the Canadian Science Center which covers all aspects of science. During their stay there, they also visited the CN Tower, Casa Loma, the world's largest indoor shopping center at Eaton's, and enjoyed dinner at the Organ Grinder Restaurant listening to the old pipe organ. On their return they stayed at Niagara Falls and were able to enjoy the lights on the falls.

Accompanying the group were Dr. William Diedrich, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Nunn, and Mr. and Mrs. Lacey Stephan.

Bits O'Talk

by Fay Bovee

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Robinson and family vacationed in Florida for three weeks. Accompanying them was Wendy Callan, a friend of their daughter, Stacey. They visited in Clearwater, St. Petersburg, Daytona Beach, and in Orlando they visited Dick and Virginia Benfield, former Grayling residents.

Mr. and Mrs. Lacey Stephan, David and Lacey, visited Hope College in Holland, Mi., during the Easter break. Lacey will be attending Hope for four weeks during the summer on a National Science Foundation Grant and his family will accompany him.

Mr. and Mrs. Werner Christman and family and Mr. and Mrs. Lary Gust and family spent the Easter week in Gatlinburg, Tenn., where they enjoyed the warm weather and played golf.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hunter have returned to their Mikado Street home after spending the winter in Ocala, Florida.

We enjoyed three days in Washington, D.C., on business and then a two-day visit with our daughter and husband, Richard and Billie Smith in Saugerties, N.Y.

Richard and Judy Campbell and children, Jaymie, Joni, John, and Ricky, spent the Easter week with their parents, Mrs. Helen Harwood and Mrs. Betty McFarlane. The Campbells had been stationed in Oak Harbor, Washington, and were enroute to Jacksonville, Florida, where Richard will be stationed in the Navy.

Gen-Tel Starts Two Projects at Skyline

General Telephone Company announces the start of two installation projects in their Roscommon-Skyline switching center costing over 189 thousand dollars. These projects which are estimated to be completed in May, include the addition of 80 new toll ticking machines and other associated equipment which will greatly improve the handling of long distance usage for customers in the Gaylord, Grayling and Higgins Lake areas.

This project will be completed and tested by the company's Central Office Equipment Installation crews.

Mary Noa

worked under. She has always inspired me," she said.

As Head Nurse, Mary is responsible for managing and directing patient care, teaching student practical nurses and orienting new employees. She serves on nursing committees and is credited by the hospital staff for instilling and improving nursing practices. She supervises a staff of 10 and has overall responsibility for all three shifts on the surgical floor.

Her career with Mercy Hospital can perhaps be likened to the hospital's climb from a 3-story, 50 bed structure years ago to the sparkling halls of the new $8 million addition, an expansion that, not unlike Mary, has allowed for vastly-improved hospital services.

Through her years of service at Mercy, Mary has driven to and from her home in Gaylord, where she was motivated by her hard-working parents, Frank and Anna Noa, who arrived from Poland as very young children, and who operated a business in Gaylord.

One might wonder how a person like Mary Noa can maintain such an effervescent spirit for so long. "When people tell me they're bored," she said while directing her staff last week, "I don't know what they're talking about. Every day has its own new experiences, and challenges. There is so much to do when caring for patients."

Years ago one of the things she recalls having to do was cut off the power at the old hospital after the boiler blew up, an incident that stands out in her memory. "It happened in the middle of the night," she recalled, "some windows blew out and I had to go into the furnace to pull the power switch. One had to be a jack of all trades back in those days. Nobody was hurt. Some of the patients got a little shook up, but they were alright."

One of Mary's most significant involvements has been helping patients with mastectomies and colostomies. The treatment she renders extends all the way through the rehabilitative process. A written Mercy Hospital tribute to Mary concludes by saying, "We at Mercy Hospital and the community thank you, Mary Noa."

Mary has one brother, John Noa and a sister, Regina Noa. She has two nephews, Frank and Michael Noa, and two great-nephews, all of whom live in Gaylord.

And after 40 years of service here, what does the future hold for Mary? "I hope to stay around a few more years," she concludes, "God willing."

"The Favorite Senior Citizen 1981"

Each year the senior citizens themselves vote for one senior who they love and want to honor for that year. The past years' winners have been: Mattie Lowe, Amy Gothro, Loretta Barnes, Angie Kirkum, Ingeborg Leslie. None of these ladies are eligible to be nominated again but we still have 1,893 senior citizens living in Crawford County who do participate in the Center programs, who could be nominated and elected.

The person you select must be 60 years of age or older, a resident of Crawford County, and one who is able to take part in activities such as riding in parades, making presentations, etc.

Voting can take place anytime in the month of May. Clip the ballot below and vote for the one whom you feel will make the best senior citizen representative for 1981 and place your ballot in the box on the television in the dining room at the Center or mail to: 308 Lawndale Drive, Grayling, Michigan 49738.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of our beloved mother, Belle I. Walker, who passed away five years ago on May 1, 1976.

Our lives are so empty
Our hearts heavy laden
Since God came that day
And our mother was taken.
Mom hugged away our hurts
She kissed away all our pain
To give of herself
Was her only life's aim,
To my sister and I
There will never be another
To take the place
Of our own precious mother.

Q: IF I CAN GET A HIGHER RETURN FROM A MONEY MARKET FUND, WHY SHOULD I PUT MY MONEY IN FIRST SAVINGS?

A: INSURED SAFETY AND A GUARANTEED RETURN.

It's as simple as that. With a First Savings Money Market Certificate there's no risk. Your savings are insured up to $100,000. And the rate is guaranteed for the length of the certificate. With a Money Market Fund it's different. Your money's not insured, so there's always the chance you could lose it all. And in many money market funds the rate of return is not guaranteed. In some Money Market Funds, the rate changes daily. If the rate goes down so does your return. That's why it's important to check carefully before you invest. So the question is really not who pays a higher return today, but risk versus no risk. We think you'll feel a lot better with your savings in a First Savings "No Risk" Money Market Certificate.

WASHINGTON, D.C.—11th District Congressman Bob Davis is seen here with National Poster Representative from the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation for 1981, Davis, who is a member of the Board of Directors of the Michigan Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, is sitting with 3 year old Jenny Haninger of Fullerton, California. Standing behind them are 8 year old Otto D'Agostin of Agoura, California, and 18 year old Doug Mohler of Oregon, Ohio. All three youths represent the thousands of youths in this country who suffer from the incurable disease, cystic fibrosis.

Twenty-five years ago, children like Jenny, Otto, and Doug who were born with the disease did not live past their fifth birthday. Today, thanks to the progress of medical research that has resulted in early diagnosis and effective treatment, about half of those born with cystic fibrosis are expected to live past their teen years.

Developmental Disabilities Education For Nurses

The college of Nursing, Wayne State University is offering an educational program for registered nurses on developmental disabilities. Through seven days of workshop activity and intervening times for assigned clinical activity, each participant will enhance skills in the assessment of the child and family, evaluate legislative mandates that influence practice and examine strategies for increased effectiveness of nursing practice. In Gaylord, the workshops will be presented at the Gaylord State Bank, 123 W. Main St. on April 24, 25; May 29, 30; June 19, 20 and October 2. Similar workshops are being offered in Marquette, Grand Rapids and Detroit. In addition, hospital nurses will have the opportunity to elect a five-day clinical affiliation offered from October, 1981 through May, 1982 at Children's Hospital of Michigan.

Rochelle Igrison, R.N., M.S., Northern Michigan Hospitals; Pat Watkins, R.N., Roscommon Health Dept. and Judy Suchoski, R.N., Traverse-Bay Intermediate School District will assist the faculty from the College of Nursing, Wayne State University.

This program is funded by the Developmental Disabilities Grants Unit of the Michigan Department of Mental Health; there is no tuition fee, but participants will be expected to provide their own meals and lodging. For the Children's Hospital affiliation, some reimbursement for those expenses will be arranged. Continuing education units will be granted by Wayne State University.

Inquiries can be addressed to Ann Zuzich, R.N., M.S. or Suzanne Feetham, R.N., Ph.D., College of Nursing, Wayne State University.

Attend the Church of Your Choice PRECISION

With the right instruments you can calculate to a degree so infinitesimal that it defies human imagination. You can plot, you can plan and come out perfectly every time — if you are dealing with things, not people.

When people enter the picture, intangibles follow. Love, hate, fear, happiness, sorrow, jealousy, trust, envy . . . you can't measure any of those things. Nor can you measure faith, which is perhaps the biggest "commodity" of all.

Yes, men have figured out almost everything except themselves. Even the world's psychiatrists state freely that most elements of the human equation are quite obscure . . .

... except before God, that is! Which is another good reason for going to church.
